

BA Art Education Suggested Four-Year Program of Study Outline

This tentative program of study is for reference only. Art Education students are encouraged to meet with their advisor to plan their final course of study. Since studio classes have prerequisites and are sequential, changes to this program of study may be necessary. AUCC classes can be taken in any order; however CO150 and MATH must be completed prior to reaching 60 credits.

UD = upper division, course numbered 300 or above.

Students may take just one upper division class in their concentration per semester.

AUCC = All University Core Curriculum; select classes from approved list (check catalog).

① Class offered fall semester only.

② Class offered spring semester only.

④ EDUC275 fulfills the AUCC requirement for Social & Behavioral Sciences.

⑤ UD Art History courses must be from the approved list to count for AUCC Category 4A/B credit. Non-western Art History is recommended for Art Education students.

⑥ Must be taken the semester prior to student teaching.
