

Communication in Rome: July 2 (arrive in Rome) – August 6, 2017 (return)

Dear Communication Studies Student:

You are cordially invited to travel to Italy with Professors Julia Khrebtan and Carl Burghardt this summer.

Through this program, students will be able to:

- Live and study for over a month in one of the great capitals of the world.
- Analyze influential Italian films and then visit the locations where they were created.
- Learn how to communicate more confidently and sensitively in a non-US culture.
- View masterworks of art and architecture in the historical seat of Western civilization.
- Sample the pleasures of Roman cuisine and lifestyle.

The “Communication in Rome” program consists of two courses that will build your intercultural communication skills and critical ability.

“Bridging Cultures” (SPCM 382) and “Cinematic Rome” (SPCM 482) fulfill upper-division requirements and count towards your Communication Studies degree.

Students who enroll in both courses are eligible to use financial aid.

During the program, students will be based at the American University of Rome, a beautiful and safe campus near the center of the historical city. Within Rome, students will visit many important cultural sites, including the Colosseum, the Roman Forum, the Pantheon, and the Vatican Museum. Expected group excursions will include Florence, Sienna, Sorrento, Capri, Pompeii, and others.
