

CONTACT INFORMATION

National Wildlife Research Center
4101 Laporte Avenue
Fort Collins, CO 80521

618.530.1137 (Mobile)
Jordan.Navin@colostate.edu
LinkedIn
Citizenship: US

RESEARCH FIELDS

Primary: Public economics
Secondary: Development economics

EDUCATION

Colorado State University – Fort Collins, CO

Ph.D., Economics (2016 – Present)
M.A., Economics (2014 - 2016)

Bowling Green State University – Bowling Green, OH

M.A., Economics (2013 – 2014)
B.S., Economics (2009 – 2012)

WORKING PAPERS

The Relatively Wealthy and Entrepreneurship
with: Mary Ellen Benedict & Sara Efshani

Firm behavior under voluntary self-reporting: evidence from the National Wildlife Strike Database

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor, Colorado State University

- Summer 2017: Economics of Public Finance

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Colorado State University

- Spring 2017: Principles of Macroeconomics
- Fall 2015: Principles of Microeconomics
- Spring 2015: Principles of Macroeconomics
- Fall 2014: Principles of Microeconomics

Adjunct Instructor, Lewis and Clark Community College

- Summer 2015: Principles of Microeconomics

Graduate Teaching Assistant, Bowling Green State University

- Fall 2013: Principles of Microeconomics

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Economics Assistant, U.S. Department of Agriculture – APHIS
National Wildlife Research Center – Fort Collins, CO (2016)

Graduate Research Assistant, Bowling Green State University –
Bowling Green, OH (2013)

Livable Communities Intern, Beyond Housing – Pagedale, MO (2012)

CONFERENCES & PRESENTATIONS

Colorado State University Economics Department Brown Bag Seminar Series (2016)
Presented: Estimating the costs of bird strikes at US airports

Western States Graduate Student Workshop (2016)
Presented: *The spirit level hypothesis and obesity:
How does income inequality impact weight outcomes in US metropolitan areas?*

Midwest Economics Association Annual Meeting (2013)

SOFTWARE

R, \LaTeX , Stata, Microsoft Office, Github