

Sarah F. Small

Clark Building C309G ♦ Fort Collins, Colorado 80523 ♦ Sarah.Small@colostate.edu

EDUCATION

Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO Anticipated May 2021
PhD Economics (Fields: Political Economy and Public Economics)

- Research Interests: feminist economics, political economy of inequality, public economics, history of economic thought, intrahousehold economics

Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO December 2018
Master of Arts Economics

Assumption College, Worcester, MA May 2016
Bachelor of Arts Economics, magna cum laude

- Women's Studies and Mathematics minors

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Colorado State University

Instructor

- ECON 204: Principles of Macroeconomics SU 2019

Graduate Teaching Assistant

- ECON 202: Principles of Microeconomics SU 2017, SP 2018, SP 2019
- ECON 204: Principles of Macroeconomics FA 2016 - FA 2017, FA 2018

Temporary Instructor (covered for instructors on parental leave)

- ECON 204: Principles of Macroeconomics FA 2018
- ECON 211: Gender and the Economy FA 2018, SP 2019

Grader

- ECON 372: History of Economic Institutions and Thought FA 2018
- ECON 635: Econometric Theory, graduate level FA 2018
- ECON 704: Macroeconomic Analysis II, graduate level FA 2018
- ECON 211: Gender and the Economy, online SU 2018

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

“Hegemonic Masculinity Under Capitalism: Women, Work, and Wellbeing,” 28th International Association for Feminist Economics Annual Conference (Glasgow, Scotland; June 2019)

“John Stuart Mill’s Subjection of Women: A 150th Anniversary Retrospective”, 46th Annual Meeting of the History of Economics Society (New York, New York; June 2019)

“Women, Unpaid Care Work, and Social Reproduction Theory” Colorado State University’s Young Democratic Socialists Association’s Celebration of International Women’s Day (Fort Collins, Colorado; March 2019)

“Basic Income Guarantees and Feminist Support from the Perspective of John Stuart Mill,” 45th Annual Eastern Economic Association Conference (New York, New York; March 2019)

“Basic Income Guarantees from the Feminist Perspective of John Stuart Mill,” The Great Transition (Montreal, Canada; May, 2018)

“Basic Income Guarantees from the Feminist Perspective of John Stuart Mill,” North American Basic Income Congress (New York, New York; June 2017)

“Examining the Impact of Female Labor Force Participation on Domestic Violence Rates in India,” Assumption College Undergraduate Research Symposium (Worcester, Massachusetts; April 2016)

HONORS & AWARDS

- Institute Scholar, Duke History of Political Economy Summer Institute, 2019
- Outstanding Graduate Researcher Award, CSU Department of Economics, 2019
- CORE-Teagle Fellow, Curriculum Open-Access Resources in Economics Project, 2018
- Ingrid H Rima Scholarship, Association for Social Economics, 2018
- Terry Ozawa Graduate Fellowship, CSU Department of Economics, 2018
- Graduate Student Council Conference Travel Award, 2018
- Omicron Delta Epsilon Best Graduate Paper for “Basic Income Guarantees from the Feminist Perspective of John Stuart Mill,” CSU Department of Economics, 2017
- Department Award Winner in Economics, Assumption College, 2016
- Department Award Winner in Women’s Studies, Assumption College, 2016

WORKS IN PROGRESS

“John Stuart Mill’s Subjection of Women: A 150th Anniversary Retrospective” with Dr. Steven Pressman

“State Variation in Intimate Partner Violence Rates, Mandatory Reporting, and Healthcare Utilization” with Dr. Anita Pena

“Hegemonic Masculinity, Women, and Work under Capitalism” (dissertation chapter)

“Introductory Economics Courses using CORE: The Impact on the Gender Problem in Economics” with Teresa Perry

INSTITUTIONAL SERVICE

- Organizer for CSU Brown Bag Seminar Series 2018-2019
- Department Representative CSU Graduate Council 2016-2017
- Graduate Panelist for CSU Undergraduate Women in Economics Conference 2017

EMPLOYMENT & INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

Feminist Economics Fellow, Feminist Economics Journal September 2017-Present

- Type edit and manage manuscripts, reviews, and research notes for Feminist Economics, assist Feminist Economics editor Elissa Braunstein

Course Developer, Colorado State University May 2018-Present

- Develop new introductory economics courses using The Curriculum Open-Access Resources in Economics Project (CORE) resources, for both in-person and online classes, supervised by Dr. Anders Fremstad

Community Insight Analyst Intern, My-Take LLC January 2015-May 2016

- Created and facilitated market research surveys, statistically analyzed survey data and wrote reports for clients based on their consumers' insights

WORKSHOPS

- Duke Summer Institute on History of Economics 2019
- Association for Social Economics Summer School 2018
- CORE USA Workshop at Barnard College 2018

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Member: American Economic Association (AEA), International Association for Feminist Economics (IAFFE), Union for Radical Political Economics (URPE)

SOFTWARE

Stata; LaTeX; Manuscript Central; Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint