COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY, Fort Collins
Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures
Assistant Professor of Spanish, Starting Fall 2014

Position
Assistant Professor of Spanish in Modern Mexican literature and culture, with the ability to teach different periods of Latin American literature and culture. Candidates who can enhance the Department’s commitment to diversity through teaching, research, and service are encouraged to apply. This is an entry-level tenure track position, to begin August 16, 2014. The successful candidate will be appointed untenured at the rank of Assistant Professor.

Required Qualifications
• Ph.D. in Hispanic literature/culture, or equivalent, in hand at time of appointment;
• Research and dissertation focus on modern Mexican literature and/or culture;
• Demonstrated record or evidence of scholarly potential, in the area of concentration;
• Teaching experience or evidence of strong teaching potential;
• Ability to teach a wide range of undergraduate and graduate courses;
• Native or near-native fluency in Spanish and English.

Preferred Qualifications
• Ability to teach different periods of Latin American literature and culture.
• Research and work that has comparative, interdisciplinary, and/or global reach.
• Experience in teaching with technology.
• Interest in literary theory and cultural studies.
• Ability to advance the department’s commitment to diversity.
• Willingness to undertake outreach in the community.

Responsibilities
• Teach five undergraduate/graduate courses per year in Spanish literature, culture or language as needed by department.
• Engage in research and publication
• Advise students in the major.
• Assist the Spanish section with outreach and recruitment
• Provide service to the department, university, and profession.

Appl. Deadline 11-10-2013

To Apply
Applicants should send a letter of interest; a current curriculum vitae; a dossier that includes graduate transcripts, evidence of effective teaching and research record or potential; and three recent letters of reference to Dr. Fernando Valerio-Holguín, Spanish Search Committee, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO 80523-1774. Routine inquiries should be directed to Jourdan Jiruska at (970) 491-6296 or Jourdan.Jiruska@colostate.edu. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled; however, for full consideration, applications must be postmarked by November 10, 2013. The department will conduct preliminary interviews by telephone/Skype in December 2013, and finalists will be invited to campus interviews in January and early February. Once semifinalists have been identified, application materials, including letters of recommendation, will be made available for review by the entire faculty of the department.

General Information
Colorado State University is a Research I comprehensive land-grant university. With 30,000 students the university is located in Fort Collins, a rapidly growing community of 144,000 at the base of the Rocky Mountain Front Range, 65 miles north of Denver. The Foreign Languages and Literatures Department has a tenure-track faculty of 14, approximately 300 undergraduate majors, 600 minors, and over 20 graduate students. We appoint 12 graduate teaching assistants. Undergraduate majors in French, German and Spanish lead to a B.A. in Foreign Languages and Literatures. The Department offers minors in French, German, Japanese and Spanish. Master of Arts degrees are offered in French, German and Spanish. A joint M.A. with the English Department’s TESL program is also available. Courses in Arabic, Chinese, Italian, Latin, Russian and American Sign Language are also part of the department’s curriculum. More information is located on the Department’s Home Page at: http://www.colostate.edu/Depts/FLL.

Colorado State University Colorado State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. Colorado State University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce and complies with all Federal and Colorado state laws, regulations, and executive orders regarding non-discrimination and affirmative action. The Office of Equal Opportunity is located in 101 Student Services.

Colorado State University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Background checks may include, but are not limited to, criminal history, national sex offender search and motor vehicle history.

This notice is being posted as a result of the filing of an application for permanent alien labor certification for the job description above.

Any person may provide documentary evidence bearing on this application to the Certifying Officer, U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Atlanta National Processing Center, Harris Tower, 233 Peachtree Street, Suite 410, Atlanta, Georgia 30303 Telephone: (404) 893-0101 FAX: (404) 893-4642