

Georgia Plotkin
Colorado State University
Department of Sociology
Fort Collins, CO 80521
504-330-6544
Georgia.plotkin@colostate.edu

Education

- Doctor of Philosophy, Sociology, Colorado State University Anticipated May 2027
- Master of Arts, Sociology, Washington State University Awarded May 2023
Thesis topic: “Exploring Social Norms in a Pandemic
Setting: Stockpiling and Normative Expectations”
- Bachelor of Arts, Sociology, University of Colorado, Boulder Awarded May 2020
Minors in Creative Writing and Art History

Awards and Honors

- Paul and Bessie Landis Scholarship, Washington State University 2021 “Funding offered in recognition of outstanding achievements and academic success at Washington State University”
- Department of Sociology First Year Graduate Student Award, 2020
Washington State University
“Honors graduate students who had a particularly successful first year in the Sociology graduate program at Washington State University”

Teaching Experience

- Graduate Teaching Instructor
SOC 251: The Sociology of Sex, Relationships and Marriage at Washington State University Spring 2023
- Graduate Teaching Assistant to Dr. Joseph Kremer
SOC 101: Introduction to Sociology at Washington State University Fall 2022
SOC 352: Youth and Society at Washington State University Fall 2020

Graduate Teaching Assistant to Dr. Kristin Cutler

SOC 368: Drugs and Society at Washington State University
SOC 101: Introduction to Sociology at Washington State University

Fall 2022
Fall 2021/Spring2022

Graduate Teaching Assistant to Dr. Sarah Whitley

SOC 336: Sociology of Food at Washington State University

Spring 2021

Research Experience

Graduate Student at Washington State University

Master's Thesis: "Exploring Social Norms in a Pandemic Setting: Stockpiling and Normative Expectations"

Fall 2020-Fall 2022

Academic Service

WSU Sociology Graduate Student Organization – Mental Health and Self-Care Committee

2020-2021

Relevant Skills and Areas of Interest

- Proficient in quantitative statistical methods, regression analysis
- Proficient in data processor, Stata
- Interested in environmental sociology; sociology of food and food systems; social networks; social norm development; mixed methodologies

Last updated July 28, 2023