COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will be able to:

1. Confirm their semiotic knowledge to resolve higher level issues.
2. Compare their encyclopedic, bicultural and thematic knowledge to address more complex translation issues.
3. Resolve complex translation issues using advanced techniques and strategies.
4. Select advanced resources to help solve register and audience issues in translation.
5. Justify and apply their knowledge of the translation process and use their psychosocial abilities to work together in groups on translation assignments.
6. Combine their knowledge and skills to produce translations and interpretations at a more advanced level to and from a second language.

TEXTS:

No texts. All materials are in Canvas – It is recommended students download this app: wordreference.com.

Be prepared to dedicate enough time outside of class on each homework to develop your translation/interpretation skills.
As a continuation of LSPA 313 we will do direct (Spanish to English) and indirect (English to Spanish) translations covering a variety of styles and registers.

--For each assignment there will be at least one draft that will be reviewed in class with detailed attention to lexical, grammar and style issues to reach a final product.
--We will focus on interpretation during the last five weeks using recordings that vary in style as we address the issues that each present.

Writing is a key component of this class and forms a major part of the course through a group exam, the semester translation project, the portfolio, the interpretation project and homework. Consistent class attendance is key to success because without it, other elements cannot be completed thoroughly and efficiently.

Key elements:

a. Homework, participation, and class attendance.

This allows:
- sharing of ideas
- facilitating individual and group participation.
- selecting two or three students to help present the homework for each class. The other students need to come prepared and with ideas that contribute to the discussion of the translations we are working on.
- turning in class homework – part of the participation grade.

Escala de notas

A+ = 100 Excelente;
A = 93-97;
A- = 90-92;
B+ = 87-89;
B = 83-86 Bueno;
B- = 80-82;
C+ = 77-79;
C = 73-76 2.00 Regular;
D = 60-72; Aprueba;
F = 0-59 Repruueba.

All work, projects and homework must be typed/on computer and double spaced. No handwritten work is accepted. Any changes to the assignments will be done at least a week ahead of time. More Information: No make-ups unless it is a proven, documented emergency.
PORTFOLIO 25%

Introduction: This is a group project. The parts are: 1.) a business or medical document from English to Spanish, 2.) a legal document (direct or indirect), 3.) a literary document from Spanish to English, 4.) a transcription from English to Spanish. This will be distributed on October 5 and it will be turned in on November 28.

Individually translated project 20% - Introduction: This translation is from Spanish to English if the student is a native English speaker and from English to Spanish if the student is a native Spanish-speaker – piece will be approved by me first. --Suggestions for it – a topic that is in your major or of interest to you (for ex. – natural resources, history, engineering, psychology, etc.) If not, a chapter from a novel, an article, or any other document of interest to you. There must be no translation of this document available. --It will be double spaced and between minimum 1250 words. The title and a summary are due September 21. The draft is due October 26 and the final along with the draft is due December 7.

The course will adhere to the CSU Academic Integrity Policy as found on the Student Responsibilities page of the CSU General Catalog and in the Student Conduct Code. (Click either link) At a minimum, violations will result in a grading penalty in this course and a report to the Office of Student Resolution Center.

Interpretation Project (15%) You will select an oral text from Spanish to English or vice versa without subtitles. You may select something from youtube.com, TedTalks, interviews or something similar. Before beginning, please turn in a theme/title with a link by November 9 for me to approve. You will do a transcription of the original along with the interpretation. The length must be 4-6 minutes. The final version will be turned in on December 5.

Notice: For each hour in class, it is expected that you will spend a minimum of two (2) hours outside of class in preparation.

Homework (15%) To be turned in for a grade that will be graded and returned 5 assignments.

Participation (10%) These partial assignments will be turned in for each class. Bring in a hard copy to review for class. To receive a 100 on this, all homework must be turned in fully completed as this will facilitate a thorough discussion of these topics. If you only turn in 90% of the work, you will receive that grade and so on. If the work turned in is incomplete showing a lack of preparation you will receive a 70%. Absences if not accompanied by official documentation will equal a zero grade for participation for that class.

Exam (15%) There will be a partial group exam on October 26 with exam turned in November 7.

Statement of Support for Survivors of Interpersonal Violence-

I am aware that many of my students have been or will be impacted by interpersonal violence at some point in their lifetime. This form of violence and a victim-blaming culture can impact academic performance. It is important that survivors find my class affirming, supportive and trauma-informed. If you are a survivor of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and/or childhood sexual abuse, know that you are not alone. If at any point your academic performance in my class is impacted by past or recent trauma, please keep me informed on how I can best support you. If you prefer, the confidential victim advocates with the Victim Assistance Team can assist you with this communication by requesting accommodations and/or providing me with feedback on how to support you. Confidential Victim Advocates through the Victim Assistance Team in the Women and Gender Advocacy Center are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to provide support at 970-492-4242.

Guía comunitaria:

- Estar presente, ser abiert@, honest@ y auténtic@
- Hablar de experiencia personal: usar frases de “yo” para compartir pensamientos y sentimientos
- Escuchar activamente y con respeto
- Compartir el tiempo: animar a que otros participen
- Mostrar una actitud y deseo de aprender de sí mism@ y de otr@s
- Ser abiert@ a perspectivas nuevas y diferentes
- Respetar y mantener la confidencialidad—lo que se compartimos aquí, se queda aquí, lo que aprendemos aquí se lleva de aquí
- Ser consciente del impacto de la identidad en nuestras discusiones—se permite un ‘re-hacer’ (do-over)
- Confiar que el diálogo nos va a llevar a una comprensión más profunda
- Ser atent@
