

BRIAN HULL

421 Riddle Drive
Fort Collins, Colorado 80521
970 672 4890
Brian.Hull@colostate.edu

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- Colorado State University, adjunct World Literature Aug. 2013-present
- Mirail University, adjunct American Civilization, Toulouse Jan. 2011- June 2011
- ETS, Rater for Graduate Record Exam Aug. 2010-present
- Colorado State University, Graduate Teaching Assistant, composition Sept. 2009-June 2010
- Mirail University, adjunct Economic Civilization, Toulouse Sept. 2005 -June 2006
- Toulouse public schools, English teacher, Toulouse Sept. 2004 –July 2006
- Songwriter/Leader for professional band Meadowlark Jivin' 1997 – present

FREELANCE JOURNALISM:

- Published regularly in Rocky Mountain Bullhorn (a weekly Northern Colorado newspaper featuring arts, music and local politics) summer 2001 to fall 2003
- Published in Clamor (a nationally distributed magazine) Bloomsbury Review (a regional Southwest literary review) and Rocky Mountain Spirit (a regional Northern Colorado human interest magazine)

EDUCATION:

- M.A. English Literature, CSU, Fort Collins, 2008-2010
- Baylor University, Waco, Texas from 1988 to 1992
- B.A. Philosophy and Journalism
- Entertainment Editor, The Lariat, Baylor's daily paper, 1991.
- Staff Writer, The Lariat, Theatre & Arts and Sports, 1991-1992.
- Founded Black Coat Art Society, an open forum for original writers and performers.

TEACHING SKILLS:

- 3 years of teaching at the university level along with 9 years of experience teaching junior high and high school students have given me a familiarity and ease in the classroom.
- Have acquired numerous teaching methods applicable to the art of writing and language acquisition.

COMMUNICATION AND LANGUAGE SKILLS:

- Speak Spanish and French fluently
- Translated French documents into English for several French companies.

ORGANIZATIONAL SKILLS:

- Organized a 1998 community fund-raising event for American Indian Leonard Peltier. Attracted internationally known poet Jimmy Santiago Baca to speak and read on Peltier's behalf.

ACTIVITIES AND INTERESTS:

- Winner of CSU's 2010 Outstanding Literary Essay Contest 2010 with essay "There Ain't No Plantations in Pittsburgh: August Wilson and the African American Diaspora."
- Released Compact Disc, with Ezra's Poundcake, Diggin' Where There's Roots.
- Released 3 Compact Discs, with Meadowlark Jivin', "Have You Ever Seen a Meadowlark Jive?" (2003), "It's the Groove" (2004), "Soul Connection" 2013.

References

1. Fernando Valerio-Holguin, Professor Foreign Languages and Literature, C.S.U. Fort Collins, 970-491-5022.
fernando.valerio-holguin@colostate.edu
2. Debby Thompson, Associate Professor English Literature, C.S.U. Fort Collins, 970-491-2840
deborah.Thompson@colostate.edu
3. Mary Vogl, Associate Professor Foreign Languages and Literature, C.S.U. Fort Collins, 970-491-6100.
Mary.vogl@colostate.edu