

CLA Ambassador Student Coordinators (3 leadership areas)

- Leadership Development & Communication

Program Supervisor: Kristen Mullen - Recruitment and Enrollment Coordinator, College of Liberal Arts

Description of Work Unit

The College of Liberal Arts (CLA) Student Ambassador Program is an extension of the CLA Dean's Office, supervised and led by the college's full-time recruitment coordinator. Program leadership and administrative tasks are supported by three CLA Ambassador Student Coordinators who each receive a $3,000 scholarship for approximately a one-year commitment (dispersed $1,500/semester). As a leadership team, the recruitment coordinator and student coordinators embrace the responsibility of managing and coordinating the college's undergraduate recruitment and outreach efforts in partnership with professional staff, campus partners and a growing number of the college's academic departments and programs.

Position Summary

Coordinators are emerging leaders with a demonstrated commitment to the Ambassador Philosophy and the Principles of Community. Each coordinator is assigned a specialized leadership area with unique responsibilities and project oversight. Coordinators each host weekly office hours during which they are expected to manage and complete timely and position-specific projects and tasks. In addition, coordinators manage and help guide the ambassador program, help to advance the college's strategic recruitment initiatives, and assist the recruitment coordinator [and thus the Dean's Office, departments, centers, programs, etc.] in meeting their undergraduate recruitment goals.

As a cohesive team, and under the direction of the program supervisor, coordinators are responsible for (1) planning and management of weekly meetings, retreats, annual events and team traditions, (2) coordinating ambassador involvement in campus visits and admissions events, (3) contributing to the planning, preparation, and execution of recruitment initiatives, and (4) promoting meaningful opportunities for the team's continued growth and skill development. Additionally, coordinators are empowered and expected to communicate proactively, engage authentically, and serve as advocates for the team to ensure a positive, inclusive learning environment at all times.

Compensation: $3,000 CLA scholarship (distributed $1,500 / semester)
